Chirpy chicks

1. Draw a circle with yellow chalk for a chick's body and fill it in.

2. Smudge the chalk around and around with your finger, to make a fluffy shape.

Add an eye, too.

3. Draw a beak, a wing and legs with an orange pencil.

4. Draw lots of little lines around your chick for feathers.

8

You could draw lots of little chicks together.

Chocolate nests

To make 10 chocolate nests, you will need:

225g (8oz) plain chocolate

50g (2oz) butter

2 tablespoons of golden syrup

100g (4oz) corn flakes

30 chocolate mini eggs

paper cake cases

a baking tray with 12 shallow holes

✿ Store in an airtight container in a fridge and eat within 3 days.

1. Put 10 paper cases into the holes in the baking tray. Then, break up the chocolate and put it into a large saucepan.

The syrup will slide off the hot spoon.

2. Cut up the butter and add it to the pan. Then, dip a tablespoon into hot water and use it to add the golden syrup.

3. Gently heat the pan on a low heat, until the butter and chocolate have melted. Stir the mixture all the time.

Try not to crush the corn flakes.

4. Turn off the heat, then add the corn flakes to the pan. Gently stir them into the chocolate, until they are coated all over.

Push the flakes up the sides of the paper cases.

5. Using a teaspoon, fill the paper cases with the chocolate mixture. Make a hollow in the middle of each nest with the spoon.

6. Put three mini eggs into each nest. Then, put the nests into a fridge and leave them for about an hour to harden.

Tulip card

1. To make a card, fold a piece of thick yellow paper in half, with its long edges together. Then, press firmly along the fold.

2. Draw tulip shapes on bright paper and cut them out. Then, draw the same number of stalks on green paper and cut them out.

3. Glue the stalks at different heights onto the card. Make them overlap the bottom edge. Then, trim off the ends, like this.

4. Spread glue over the backs of the tulips. Then, press them onto the ends of the stalks, making some of them overlap each other.
